FIRE HORSE

28 January 2026

Riding the Growth Wave

Welcome to the Year of the Horse!

Horses are majestic creatures renowned for their ability to traverse challenging terrains with strength and determination. Similarly, global economies and markets navigated uncharted territory last year, and the journey ahead promises to be just as dynamic. Yet, as horses have empowered humanity to explore new frontiers and seize opportunities, we believe ASEAN markets are ready to harness growth momentum in the Year of the Fire Horse.

The region's GDP is projected to achieve resilient growth of +4.6% in 2026 and +4.7% in 2027. Central banks across many ASEAN economies are expected to maintain accommodative monetary policies, supporting expansion. Despite headwinds from aggressive US tariffs and trade policies, ASEAN's technology exports, energy demand, construction, foreign direct investment, and tech-enabled services are thriving.

This momentum is fuelled by surging AI capex from global tech giants investing in chips, data centres, and advanced equipment. Simultaneously, supply chains are being reconfigured toward ASEAN, with lower effective US tariffs in Southeast Asia compared to China encouraging FDI as companies seek cost efficiency and risk diversification. The Johor-Singapore SEZ is poised to become a key catalyst for regional integration and opportunity.

These macroeconomic catalysts are setting a powerful foundation for ASEAN equities. As we commence 2026, we are Overweight on Singapore, Malaysia, and Vietnam—markets unified by robust growth themes. Sustained investment upcycles, rising FDI, large-scale infrastructure projects, regulatory reforms, growing tourism and generous fiscal support are all converging to elevate earnings and valuations across these economies. Indonesia's sovereign wealth fund "Danantara" attracting foreign capital for transformative projects, Thailand's upcoming general elections, and the Philippines' strategic budget reallocations to stimulate consumption further amplify the region's growth prospects.

As these positive trends unfold, we anticipate banks, telecommunications, healthcare, consumer sectors, tourism, AI and data centre proxies, as well as small- and mid-cap companies, to benefit most from the region's upward momentum.

There is no doubt that markets will continue to venture into uncharted territories this year. Rest assured, Maybank Investment Banking Group stands ready with award-winning advisory, research, and trading platforms to help you navigate uncertainty and seize impactful investment opportunities. May the Year of the Fire Horse bring you swift progress, profitable trades, and boundless success.

Welcome to the Year of the FIRE HORSE

The Year of the Fire Horse begins on 4th February 2026 and is predicted to be one of the most dynamic and fast-paced periods in recent history. This rare alignment of the Fire element over the Horse, which is also a Fire element, amplifies energy, passion, speed and spontaneity.

Finance – Chasing the missing element

The primary theme for 2026 is monetization. Water, which represents wealth, is visually absent. This makes it a sought-after commodity. Those with the resources and financial muscles will benefit most from the rest who are cashing out. Catch the bargains. Stocks peak in summer, minerals will soar.

Dominating energy – Intelligence

The year's main driver is knowledge and use of drone technology, AI and robotics. More jobs will be replaced, and the speed of AI influence accelerates the need to embrace it in our use and functions. Illegitimate use also spikes and frauds will evolve and increase exponentially.

Health and well-being

Heat related threats, cardiovascular issues, gastrointestinal problems and breathing will be brought about by intense environmental heat, bush fires and volcanic eruptions, some underwater.

Relationships

Horse years are part of the peach blossom equation, and the evidence points to an extremely passionate and spontaneous year. Marriage, partnerships and collaborations are expected, some one-sided.

We are amid the Fire cycle of the years spanning 2025 and 2027. As a result, the summer of the Year of Fire Horse is anticipated to be the peak of all activities associated with this element.

We have already experienced the spike in world equities markets that goes against fundamentals. Wars and instability were factored in early as interest rates continue falling. Market spikes create new wealth. Liquidity is in the hands of the adventure seekers.

In 2026, the element Fire is featured in the forefront of the year. In fact, it is a double combination of fire elements, and rooted in three quarters of the year's forecast. This points to show of passion, excitement, and spontaneity.

Further strides in AI, robotics, drone technology will push the frontiers of economic activities to new heights. It is forecasted that new records will continue in indices and volumes around the world's stock markets, especially where they are supported by governments and institutional funds.

From a Feng Shui perspective, Southeast Asia will experience exponential prosperity, while China will continue to build up its massive wealth.

WOOD INDUSTRIES

SECTOR WINNERS

CONSULTANCY / ADVISORY

ONLINE MEDIA

INNOVATION

Wood plays a dual role in 2026. Representing competitiveness, disciplinary order, and execution, it also represents the profile of the Year of Fire Horse. This means that the year 2026 is going to be driven by order, more than chaos. The profile drives the characteristics of the year's actions. With discipline and regulation in place, competition will not go haphazard.

This year, Wood is represented by the male domain. Expect demands to be hard and strict and it will almost definitely come from male leaders. It is not shown in the open, but are fiercely rooted. This is pointing to a non-negotiable 12 months when orders are being passed down.

As they are rooted in the month and year structure, competitiveness and order will be observed in areas of work, professional duties as well as in the areas of investments, asset management and valuations. Mergers and acquisitions, although significantly increased from 2025, will face tough negotiations.

The abundance of Fire in this year's chart also suggests that majority will display their abilities and muscles in dealings and contractual matters. Wood goes into hiding, and thus, politics, manipulation and unconventional methods of dealings are to be expected in business as support is scarce. People fight lonely battles in 2026.

WATER INDUSTRIES

SECTOR WINNERS

Water represents wealth in the year's chart, which is totally absent. Here comes the divide – half will go all out to chase and acquire it, while the other half will just sit and wait. Money may be weaponized. Currency will also be traded at a furious pace. Governments may have to put in more money into the economy to spur domestic spending.

Logistics and freight will be a highlight this year, leading to acquisitions or integration of services in preparation for supply chain boom from 2028. Tourism evolves as conventional attractions give way to curated programs and customized itineraries. Event organizers will thrive between 2026 and 2027. Event and exhibition halls will be in big demand and so will entertainment gigs by artistes and entertainers.

The absence of Water in 2026 leads to fears of an overheating economy, slowdowns and crisis but due to the resilience and liquidity, corrections and reprieves will be brief. For investors, timing and resources, especially financial, will be critical factors.

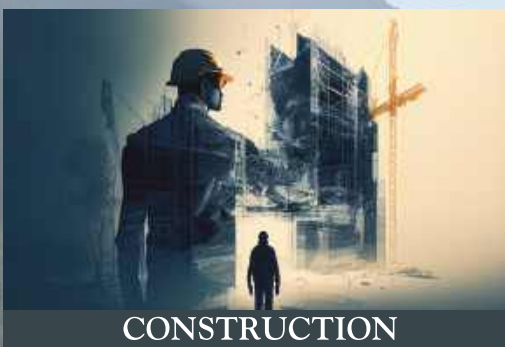

As the year tails off in 2026, the last quarter will leave the lesser half people who do not bother about financial literacy to lag even further as markets will surely continue to drive prices higher. Those with the means will buy things cheaper.

EARTH INDUSTRIES

SECTOR WINNERS

REAL ESTATE

CONSTRUCTION

HOME UPGRADING

DATA WAREHOUSE

Earth, more specifically Yin Earth, is the Day master, the central character of this year. Qualities include kindness, compassion, gentleness and the grace of giving. Hopefully, this will play out well for charities that are in need. This Earth is supported by very strong Fire. Resources, intelligence and followers are in abundance for the individual. Delving deeper, this Earth is sitting on the Yin Metal character, Rooster. Interestingly, while the Year of the Fire Horse is by its own nature a Peach Blossom year, it is further reinforced by the day's character combination (配) which means compatibility, marriage and mating. 2026 is an excellent year to get married or getting hitched for singles.

Symbolizing real estate, data centres, leasing and human resources, it is not well represented in 2026. This points to another muted year of growth in these industries. However, for those with already such assets in hand, demand and profiting remain viable. Come 2028, real estate will face a structural shift as an asset.

Earth has its values in trust and stability. Although it is demonstrated openly, it can be taken that communities and people in general will not be true to their intentions when negotiating deals. This makes negotiations difficult and hard to conclude.

Expect 2026 to come with smart moves, surprise strategies and clear conscience.

METAL INDUSTRIES

SECTOR WINNERS

GOLD & SILVER

LUXURY

AUTOMOTIVE

MINING

Once again, Metal is weak in 2026. This brings it to a level of scarcity that will drive up demand. Metal includes precious metals like gold, platinum and silver and cryptocurrencies. Luxury brands and automotive companies are grouped under this too. They will continue their upwards trend due to demand.

With the pressures of the element Fire, Metal goes volatile. It will see-saw between highs and lows, but will average out in positive territories. Metals, including rare minerals, so critical in the production of AI chips, will be dominated in supplies and stockpiles by big economies. As an investor, follow the supply chain and you will benefit from their values.

As minor conflicts arise in targeted locations around the world, Metal will be supported by threatened supply chains. However, it will pan out well as businesses and manufacturers are well stocked to weather any storms for the next two years. Putting money into AI tech companies will not go wrong in the short term.

While attention is drawn to physical metals as inventories and investments, cryptocurrencies will continue to attract the bold traders. While not spectacular as in past years, there may be a surprise resurgence of interests in areas such as stablecoins.

2026 CHINESE ZODIAC OUTLOOK

RAT

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 0,3,9

Lucky Colours:

Black, Yellow, Gold

Compatibility:

Ox, Dragon, Monkey

The Rat is in a direct conflict, clashing against the Horse year. The intrinsic Water element of the Rat clashes out against the Fire element of the Horse. Changes are imminent for Rats in 2026 and the best way to handle this is to make a move on your own. Imagine yourself trying to fight the raging heat lasting the entire year. Rats have got to be proactive and forthcoming towards their attitude and intentions.

If you visualize it, it seems like the work of the Calamity Star, an energy of misalignment, trying to put you off the tracks. In addition, Rats will also find that they require additional efforts solving the same issue. The answer is to get fit, ready and alert. 2026 is the year for you to keep in shape, eat healthy and sleep enough.

Year Breaker causes anxiety and casts doubts over your decisions while the Obstacles Star makes life difficult in your daily routines. When these two work at the same time, Rats will be brought self evaluation early in their missions. Quitting seems human and the lack of resilience will hang around more often.

Be cautious when travelling in summer months between May and July and watch out for locations that are fire prone, such as wild vegetation and even old buildings that are subjects to spontaneous fires.

There is a chance of a big expenditure, and you are advised to be alert to invitations for financial investments and potential scams. This is the works of the Big Consumer together with the Flying Blade stars.

If you can handle these threats, Rats will find that with a little luck and opportunities on their side, success at work and social life look equally promising. Steady income and stability are also assured if you are not tempted to quit your job or jump into a quick venture without much thought.

Ox

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 1,5,8

Lucky Colours:

Red, Blue, Earth

Compatibility:

Rat, Snake, Rooster

In areas of authority, control and commitment, there is no equal to the two most influential stars of the system that can match what belongs to the Ox.

Emperor Star is the endorsement of power. Unlike the Grand Duke, the Emperor Star is not just symbolic. It is an active and responsible role that the Ox can leverage upon. People who are in management, supervisory or any leadership roles will benefit tremendously with this empowerment. If you are willing to take the lead, lay the rules and administer the process, success will be in big volumes. Of course, there is also a huge responsibility to shoulder should things not turn out right. The way to handle this is to stay focused on the results you are trying to achieve.

You have the most effective sidekick with you through the year. He is called the Dragon Virtue, ensuring that protocols are followed through, order maintained, assignments handed on time and dues collected. You can say that he is doing the dirty work, most willingly.

In any kingdom, there exists dissatisfaction, envy, spies and traitors. Be careful of them all, although they are unlikely to cause real harm. This is the presence of the Year Killing and the Dark Sky stars. There is also a need to be in moderation in public as the year's energies can cause sudden changes, which are beyond your control.

Personally, your behavior and presence must also be tempered with care. Avoid being seen as too insistent in your ways and demands. While you enjoy the attention of others, be sensitive to those under you and never take advantage of a situation as all eyes are on you. Unless you are being asked, do not offer your opinion or advice and keep out of other people's personal affairs or you will be quickly be branded as a busybody.

TIGER

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 4,5,0

Lucky Colours:

Orange, Red, Teal

Compatibility:

Pig, Horse, Dog

It looks like the odds are being stacked against Tigers in the Year of Fire Horse 2026 as there are no evident positive stars in your favor. Instead, there are six major afflictions coming your way.

Before you get more depressed, you must know that there are ways and practical solutions to get by the year. In fact, with some good marketing and asking around, Tigers may find that 2026 is way more fruitful minus the personal commitment and investment. This strategy is called 'borrowing other peoples' luck'.

But first, let's handle what you are given on the plate.

White Tiger Star throws you fierce and swift threats, both physically and emotionally. Avoid the hotspots where extreme heat and fire induced accidents are likely to happen. Professionally, be careful with conduct. Flying chaste is a legal threat which can come from your personal misgivings or entities trying to find faults over deliverance and contractual obligations. Ask those born in Horse and Pig years for advice and they will offer.

Sky Warrior is a sign of physical altercations and harm. Walk away from troubles and avoid exposures to areas where big crowds or rowdiness are gathered. Need protection? Look around and be in the company of people born in Ox years.

If you are working in a community or company, politics will keep you busy, courtesy of the Back Poking Star. Go to those born in Dog years to deflect some backstabbing. Earth Killing, meanwhile, gets you property issues such as rents and repair challenges. With the Great Killing Star around, do not gamble nor speculate. If you really need some kicks out of it, ask your Rabbit friends to buy the lucky draw tickets on your behalf.

RABBIT

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 1,3,6

Lucky Colours:

Maroon, Purple

Compatibility:

Dog, Goat, Pig

There is much to look forward to in the Year of Fire Horse. Except for a few downsides, which can be managed with some discipline, the upsides are worth celebrating.

With good fortunes come indulgence and recklessness, if you are not careful. Bad habits and insensitivities may creep into your life. These may include too much enjoyment and bad company.

Curled Tongue is flattery that you fall for when others come to you in need of favours. It therefore spills into misinformation and wrong signals from those who are passing by in life, not permanent features. In turn, they will represent some disappointment in life for you.

Because you are in luck and in a good mood, you can be blindsided by the Annual Killing Star. This energy leaves you insistent and illogical to explanation and reasoning from others around you. As a result, you may have to shoulder the responsibilities of bad decisions and wrong judgements. Drapes Star obviously commits you to overpromises and commitments you can hardly afford. Stay grounded while you enjoy the good times.

Rabbits are lucky to have the Fortune Virtue Star that brings financial breaks and windfalls, while the Heavenly Virtue offers an insurance against bad decisions. Be wary, however, not to be drawn into vices, gambling and intoxication which are works of the Salty Pool Star.

There is good news all round the year. Promotions, partnerships, profitable ventures, even marriage can be part of 2026, and with the Peach Blossom Star, your attraction powers leave competitors in absolute darkness.

DRAGON

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 4,2,9

Lucky Colours:

Crimson Red, Yellow

Compatibility:

Rooster, Rat, Monkey

The Sky Relief Star is insurance enough to prevent disasters from taking place. This is crucial in ensuring a smooth year ahead for you. Dragons are in between things in the Year of Fire Horse. Your efforts are often diminished by adverse circumstances and not for the lack of your abilities nor determination.

Dragons are advised to band together with the understanding from Rats and Monkeys, but more importantly, to take advantage of the good fortune of Roosters to alleviate any possible financial difficulty. You should try and make use of 2026 as a learning curve to serve you better in emergencies.

When travelling, one should watch out for incidents involving heights and suspensions. The Suspended Guest portends potential mishaps that happen on high grounds and in locations that carry suspended carriages. Being a fire element centric year, it can also involve flames and heat.

Sky Dog has links to issues relating to poor health. At times, it leads to complications of relationships and emotional distress. Adding to this problem is the Lonesome Star which isolates individuals with low esteem and those going through difficult times. Rolled together, they can lead to the giving up of hope. Leopard Tail makes one offensive and abrupt. Dragons must try to moderate their aggressive behavior in public as it would not help situations for them to be deemed difficult. Instability Star casts doubt and unnecessary worries, while Month Killing makes issues repetitive.

With such unfavorable conditions, Dragons must not carry through their challenges by themselves. Seek help, remain optimistic and people will come forward to fight and win the battles you face.

SNAKE

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 2,7,0

Lucky Colours:

Jade Green, Peach

Compatibility:

Monkey, Ox, Rooster

Precision and swift actions are needed for Snakes to thrive in the Year of Fire Horse. Opportunities exist for you to grow and there will be recognition awaiting your contributions. With similar efforts, the Heavenly Officer Star makes fair judgement of what is due.

2026 may not be spectacular in the results that you wish for. But it can be just as rewarding, as you are equally effective in achieving the desired results with less work. Timing is important for you this year and as long as you are moderated in your expectations, you will not be disappointed.

While you should not spend time worrying about negative impacts, there are several habits you can cultivate through the year to make you stronger.

In your quest for success, pause and look around to make sure what you do is not at the expense of others. The Mo-Yue Star can reward you with breakthroughs at work and business if you show consideration and care.

The Death God Star makes you absent minded, missing datelines, forgetting anniversaries and missing appointments. It makes you seem uninterested in your self care and esteem, and end up being blamed for ingratitude.

Do not allow false sense of security towards your medical and health responsibilities. Ironically, 2026 brings about the Solid Killing Star which can be translated to a loss of control over your wellbeing. When the Sickness Star comes into play, issues relating to breathing and cardiovascular matters must be taken seriously.

HORSE

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 5,6,9

Lucky Colours:

Ash Grey, Silver

Compatibility:

Goat, Tiger, Dog

Being the Year of the Fire Horse, your own zodiac sign means you are taking on the role of the ruling year, also known as the Grand Duke or Tai-Sui. Obviously, this points to heavy responsibilities and the need to make hard decisions. All eyes are on you, your directions and your commands.

Turning this around is to activate the Duke Arrival Star. It requires you to put aside the downsides the Grand Duke Star brings you assuming the Duke Arrival is to take charge of matters. Stay connected to what is happening around you as well as to the people whom you are leading. Act responsibly, maintain fairness and this could turn out to be a very rewarding year. Together with the help of the General Star in your favor, your personality and charisma will turn into natural charms for followers.

On the financial front, Golden Lock Star offers you monetizing luck and bright prospects. If you are into investments, build up early and you will end 2026 in positive territory. If you are a business owner, some innovations and tapping into technology will help.

This year can prove difficult if you are challenged on identity, image and past records. Hidden Corpse points to revelations of your history and may find you in awkward situations. Be prepared.

It would be wise to keep away from environmental hotspots if you are travelling this year. Summer months between May and July can prove vulnerable. Watch out for natural earth movements, sun flares, bush fires, spontaneous breakouts of combustible materials and building fires. Finally, it is good to preempt some bodily cuts or invasive surgery by visiting the dentist or doing a blood donation early in the year.

GOAT

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 1,5,9

Lucky Colours:

Sky Blue, Egyptian Gold

Compatibility:

Horse, Rabbit, Pig

There is a personal connection between the Goat and the Horse year called the Year Combination. This results in the Goat benefitting from the Fire element of the Horse resulting in a calm mind, clarity and spiritual awareness. You will be drawn to community matters, and it is a great time for you to share and contribute to the greater good if you can afford the time and financial means.

At the same time, Goats get the backing of the Sun Star, which is pure Yang energy. It is vital for problem solving. This means that you should take stock of what has been bothering you and for whatever suppressing reasons, gain the courage to bring them up to resolve. It could be a lingering fear, a bad situation that you have been living with, a medical issue you have been avoiding or a debt uncleared.

If you are already in a good position or see yourself being able to push for results, make full use of the Golden Carriage Star that rewards you from diligence and perseverance. This energy powers you up and motivates you to focus on the end-result, which can build up to a massive payoff. It goes for those in employment as well as independent business owners and gig workers. It also represents a small windfall, but unrelated to gambling. People who trade worldwide or have an international audience benefit greatly from the Pummled Saddle. 2026 is the year for you to go for exponential growth.

In spite of your positive outlook, you are reminded that plans and dreams stay as they are without the actions. Sky Emptiness may give you the ideas and desires for lofty dreams, but with poor directions and suspicious influence, you will fall behind. This brings us to the company you keep. Bad Energy sways you to those sponging off your good intentions. As a result, it makes you sluggish and demotivated. Females must watch out for Cascading Cloud that makes you dreamy and indulgent in comfort and resulting in nothing being achieved.

MONKEY

MONEY:

Lucky Numbers: 2,5,7

Lucky Colours:

Orange, Maroon

Compatibility:

Snake, Rat, Dragon

The Intelligence Star this year falls into your palace, making it a vital ingredient for absolute success. The year itself already comes with its own intelligence star and working this in tandem means it will be necessary not just to outwit the competition, but to leverage on the year's information fed to you. It is a star of discovery and innovation. Thus, if you are in the business of knowledge or working in the research department, you are most likely to shine.

Wits aside, 2026 is also a Sky Horse year for Monkeys. This means that movements or motion will activate this energy to produce results for you. Sky Horse, combined with the Intelligence Star, often results in careful planning and breaking new ground in inventions, international marketplaces and in the world of technology. The key is the use of AI related tools, which differentiates you from the rest.

As smart as you get, the Fire Horse is one of deception and you are not spared the threats. The Robbery Killing Star is trying to tell you that someone is likely to outsmart you by taking advantage of your most valuable and vulnerable asset – time. Be wary of scams and do not trade off your attention and alertness during odd hours or during your most busy periods.

With much in hand, you are also likely to drift from friends and family. Separating Edge Star is responsible for others feeling that you are insensitive towards their needs and attention. Be prepared that there are likely petty disagreements from close friends that can distract you from your goals. This will lead you to the Solitary Star's influence of ostracizing you from the mainstream and the crowd. Fight the feeling of being left alone or distracted by focusing on quarterly targets to meet. Elderly folks or a sick family member can add to your problems. Making your position clear is important, but do not remove the human factor in relationships.

ROOSTER

Lucky Colours:

Yellow Gold, Platinum

Compatibility:

Dragon, Ox, Snake

2026 goes social for Roosters. It will be a busy year for you, and it has a lot to do with interactions with others. There are three people related stars in your favor, use them wisely.

Moon Star is the star of inspiration. As a Yin energy star, it is more visible as a female personality, but equally representative of fine quality, alternative solutions and mediation. When in use, this empowers your clarity and impartiality in dealing with problems. You are also likely to be inspired to make a success of things you set your sights on.

With the Heavenly Noble Star, seemingly impossible tasks becomes easier, and we all need such a divine intervention when odds are stacked against us. In 2026, have faith even with the biggest obstacles in front of you.

Red Matchmaker is one of the most powerful Peach Blossom stars that connect people in different ways. This star attracts people to commit to relationships, and it is an exceptionally good year for singles to get hooked up or married. In the case of those who are not into relationships, this star is equally effective in bridging people for partnerships and collaborations. With the help of the Bright Hall Star, Roosters should have no problems having their priorities set right from the start.

The negative stars that affect you have much in common when it comes to commitments and poor judgement. Do not commit too quickly and you are advised to be especially careful with financial commitments. This is the work of Hook Spirit which will punish you with a bad reputation and financial losses. In addition, you must be careful of decisions made with herd instincts as they are likely to turn out unreliable. Be careful in your decisions and not make them with second hand information.

DOG

MONEY:

Lucky Numbers: 0,4,9

Lucky Colours:

Ruby Red, Gold

Compatibility:

Rabbit, Tiger, Horse

Your creativity is at its peak in the Year of Fire Horse. Whether you are an entertainer, artist, social media personality, stage presenter or marketing specialist, the demand for your ideas and professional work will sky rocket. 2026 is the time for you to monetize your talents and increase your presence. Even if you are not a public character, you will not be overlooked at your workplace and in business. This is the power of the Elegant Seal in your favor.

The chances for recognition at work is also greatly enhanced with the Three Stages Star. Therefore, this is the time for you to increase and improve on your performances and output for the company. If you are a business owner or run a side-gig, this would be the year for you to grab any chance of media exposure, especially online, and to export your abilities worldwide.

Deal with petty and annoying people along the way. Do not be distracted or waste your energy on getting even. The most pressing threat comes from the Litigation Star for which, unresolved disagreements can turn quickly into legal battles. The good advice is to avoid arguments altogether and settle official matters on time.

Peeling Head Star gives you confusion and frustration from the commitments you made. This usually stems from others' expectations and not to be mistaken as your inaptness. To add to the problem is the Yellow Flag which causes blind chases, lost directions and demotivation. Be prepared for official audits, checks and surprise requests from higher-up authorities. Keep your books and accounts in order and you will have nothing to fear.

This year is a good year for you to add or accumulate on your assets, physical and virtual. Earth Relief adds value to your current ownership. Invest and reap the benefits before the Goat year in 2027 runs out.

PIG

MONEY:

WORK:

HEALTH:

LOVE:

Lucky Numbers: 2,5,8

Lucky Colours:

Scarlet red, Jade

Compatibility:

Tiger, Rabbit, Goat

It is a rather balanced year for those born in Pig years. There will be interesting moments of victories as well as times when things end abruptly. There is immunity against disastrous results while others look upon you as an easy target for a ripoff.

First, the good stuff. In the Year of Fire Horse, all Pigs are charming. The Sky Noble Star ensures that all who come under this sign have captivating powers and be able to turn the tables even in the face of adversity. This is crucial in these times of uncertainty when conflicts are sudden, and economics run counter against fundamentals.

There are recurring issues for everyone. Bills to settle, children to worry about, adults to care for, office grinds and business numbers to meet. With the Monthly Virtue, you are advised to take things as it comes, on a monthly cycle. This star does not solve problems all at once nor in one sitting. Instead, you will always be saved by the moments when it is needed most.

Jade Hall Star gives you reasons to stay motivated. Benefactors, people who appreciate your work, sincerity, honesty and recipients of your efforts are all there to celebrate your success. Jade Hall is a financially rewarding star that compensates you fairly and repeatedly.

Watch your spending, especially the impulsive, repetitive or habitual wastages. Small Consumer can snowball into hefty debt this year and you must watch your credit and loans status. Robbery Star makes you look like easy target for scams and cheating. Theft also comes in identity loss, be careful when divulging or sharing your personal data. Be prepared for some end of things, especially involving people. Death Charm means departures, willing or not.
